Cayucos Library's Winter Adult Reading Program

The Friends of Cayucos Library are pleased to have sponsored the second annual Adult Winter Reading Program from January 15 – April 15, 2012.

Participants selected and read books from nine various categories. All readers are invited to join in a wrap-up party on Wednesday evening, April 18 at 6:30 p.m. in the Library Community Room. We'll share opinions, win prizes, and take home a thank-you gift.

The Cayucos Art Association
(CAA) has volunteered to accept and display art at the library. The wall behind the librarian's desk will feature works of art focused on local scenes from members of the Cayucos Art Association. Because the CAA is taking responsibility for the art and the display, exhibitors must be members of the Association. Art work is for sale, and will be rotated every 6 weeks. The librarian will have a list of artists and telephone numbers for purchasers to contact directly. The art is a welcome and lovely addition to our library space and we hope you enjoy it! For more information, call Candice Lusk at 808-347-8141.

COMING THIS SUMMER TO CAYUCOS LIBRARY

Ivan Ulz will bring his energetic songs and stories (FIRE TRUCK SONG!) to the Library this summer (June 27 at noon) to kick off the summer programs for kids and teens sponsored by Friends of Cayucos Library. Fun is scheduled on Wednesdays at noon from June 27 – August 8 for ages 5 – 10, and Wednesdays July 11, 18, 25, and August 1 at 4:00 p.m. for middle and high schoolers (except July 4). You'll see some old favorites and some exciting new faces. Watch for the flyer with all the details at the library and on the FOCL website at freindscaucoslibrary.com. Need more information? Call or write summer program coordinators Hannah Held and Kate Throop at 995-3204 or friendsofcayucoslibrary@gmail.com.
